

ABSTRACT

A canine waste collection device and waste disposal method are described. The device is called the Ring Bag Canine Waste Collection Device. The ring bag device catches and collects canine feces before it contacts the ground and provides a sanitary means to dispose of the collected solid waste. The ring bag device consists of a 10-inch in diameter, non-corrosive, steel ring and a supply of disposable plastic bags.